

Worldview Classes: Preview Nights

Worldview elective classes give students a biblical perspective of the world around them, amidst all of the confusion and lies permeating the culture. They learn to refine their critical thinking skills, develop discernment, and become firm in their beliefs.

Worldview A1: Middle School / World Religions
Worldview A2: Middle School / Ancient Biblical Theology

Worldview B1: High School / World Religions
Worldview B2: High School / Ancient Biblical Theology

Join us for one or both PREVIEW NIGHTS to meet the Instructor, Mr. Chris. Whether you are thinking about enrolling in class or not, these are great sessions for both students and parents to participate in some deep discussions!

Building Your Discernment Toolbox

How can we learn to have discernment, and be able to determine what is fact and what is fiction? In this workshop you'll learn some of the tools that students gain in our classes, including language theory, exegesis, and critical thinking. Parents and students considering one of our classes will get to experience Mr. Chris's teaching style, and will get a chance to participate and ask questions.

Participants will have a chance to win their books for the class of their choice for free.

Location: The Homeschool Hub, Lewisville TX

Date/Time: June 12th (90 min)

Cost: $15 per family

The Four Ultimate Questions

All worldviews, frameworks, and religions must answer the Four Ultimate Questions. Understanding what they are, what they mean, and the importance of each one helps us to better discern real truth. In this workshop Mr. Chris gives an overview of this concept, and you'll get to participate in the discussion and ask questions about his courses. Participants will have a chance to win their books for the class of their choice for free.

Location: The Homeschool Hub, Lewisville TX

Date/Time: June 23rd (90 min)
